MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 5.

A BLIND MAN WHO DOES NOT NEED A GUIDE.-One of the most remarkable cases of intelligent blindness on record exists near Steubenville, Ohio, in the person of a man named Jacob Twaddle. He is sixty years old, and notwithstanding the fact that he has been blind from his birth, he is able to distinguish readily, by the sense of touch, the color of a horse, make rails, build fences, grub, rake and bind as well as the best of his hands after a cradle, and to attend and manage without assistance everything necessary to be done on his farm; and he goes to Salineville, eight miles from his residence, to market, often unattended by any one; knows the location of every farm for miles from his house, and is able to readily point out the same while passing by; recognizes everybody he is acquainted with by the senses of touch and hearing; has been known to recognize a stranger whom he had not met in ten years by the sense of touch alone. In 1842 he drove a four horse team to Twaddle's horse mill, in Ross township, a distance of twenty five miles, and can now point the location of every grave in the old stone church cemete ry in Fox township, Carroll county, and tell whose dust it contains. He is one of a family of seven, all born blind.

GREAT CLOCK .- The works of the im mense clock which has been put up in the Board of Trade building in Chicago are pronounced a most perfect reproduction of those of the great Westminster Palace clock in London, but with some additions and improvements adapted to its commercial purposes. It is constructed of iron, bronze and steel, and weighs ten tons without the bell, the latter adding some 4,500 pounds more. The pendulum alone weighs 750 pounds. In its arrangement the works are divided into a time train, a hand train and a striking train, these several trains comprising separate machines, resting side by side, on separate trames. Each train is operated by a separate weight, and the three weights together reach some 3,500 pounds. The hammer that strikes the bell weighs eighty pounds; the clockwork is below the dials, which are too feet two inches in diameter, and the bell is above them, or 250 feet above the ground. The pendulum swings one way in two seconds.

Alexandria Gazette

Established in 1800, the GAZETTE is now the oldest paper published in the State, and with one or two exceptions the oldest in the country. It is proposed to continue its usefulness as a paper suited for the family as well as for the counting oom and work shop, and to this end neither pains nor expense will be spared.

The GAZETTE circulates among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are apparent.

The GAZETTE will continue to furnish the news

The Commercial columns of the GAZETTE will give the earliest and most exact financial and commercial news, with reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets.

Its Richmond correspondence and special tele graphic dispatches will give early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State gov-published continually, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are faithfully reported.

Correspondence from every section of the State to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood.
